Dear Black Women in Progress Internship Committee,

I am writing this to express my interest in Black Women in Progress First-Year Summer Internship. Your mission to empower Black women and girls through mentorship, confidence-building, and community is incredibly meaningful to me, both personally and professionally.

As someone who is of a mixed race, I have navigated the experience of trying to find my place within multiple cultures. Growing up, there were moments where I felt like I did not fully belong in either space, which made identity and self-confidence something I had to actively build over time. Because of this, I deeply understand how important it is for young girls especially Black girls and girls of color to have spaces where they feel seen, supported, and celebrated for who they are. This is why your camp stands out to me it creates an environment where girls can embrace their identity, build confidence, and feel a strong sense of belonging.

I am pursuing a career in education to inspire children to take their education seriously and stay committed to their goals. This internship is especially meaningful to me because it aligns with both my personal experiences and my professional aspirations to support and uplift youth.

I would be honored to contribute my experiences, perspective, and dedication to helping create a positive and empowering experience for every camper. Thank you for your time and consideration, and I look forward to the opportunity to further discuss how I can support your mission.

Sincerely,

Natalyia Torres
